

VALLE NEVADO SKI TRIP 2017

Beautiful scenery of the breath-taking Andes mountains surround Valle Nevado. There are actually three ski areas in close proximity and accessible by Valle Nevado lifts. Valle Nevado is the biggest of the three with excellent intermediate and advanced terrain, plenty of long gentle beginner slopes and scenic catwalks found between mountain slopes, and enough expert terrain to keep those that need it satisfied throughout the week. The lodge, meals, amenities, and atmosphere is an amazing blend of the very best of Latin America and Europe. This is a family friendly resort with lots of activities for everyone.

Price: approximately $3200.00 per person, based on 7 nights in Valle Nevado.

Children: 4 and under free (free day care 3-7 years old 9am -12:45 pm, 2:00 pm – 6:00 pm).

Dates: August 3rd – 11th 2017 Deposits required: mid November

Hosts: Michael, Maureen and Katie Metzger

Heli-skiing Valle Nevado: $971.00 two runs (2,000 vert feet each run)

This is an expensive trip for sure, perhaps on your bucket list, but I personally felt we had an amazing vacation for the money, plus memories that will last a life time. – Michael Metzger
